

ACC-HU Handheld Unit

TOOL FOR AIMING AND MONITORING

- Light and autonomous
- Liquid crystal display screen
- Signal verification with acoustic indication
- Maintenance functions
- Self-upgradeable firmware
- No batteries
- Installation without a PC

PRODUCT DESCRIPTION

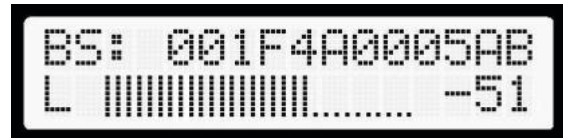

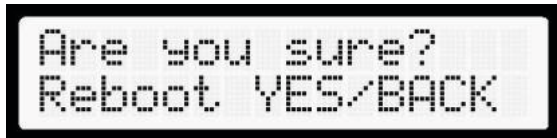

Handheld Unit is a tool which helps installing and maintaining Albentia Systems' wireless equipment. It allows installing and aiming antennas without a PC, thus reducing time and costs. It also features other functions to facilitate equipment maintenance and configuration.

APPLICATIONS

- Visualization of the link's status and signal level, through screen display with acoustic indication, in order to help aiming
- Checking equipment's characteristics and IP address
- Equipment restart, or reset to factory settings
- WISP: installing antennas without a PC

Specifications

Firmware	Self-upgradeable firmware for future upgrades with new functionalities
Ports	USB and DB-9 for connection to different equipment units by Albentia Systems
Power supply	Power supply through equipment unit. No batteries needed
Weight	160 gr
Dimensions	170 x 80 x 28 mm
Packed dimensions	220 x 120 x 50 mm

Examples of device's screen display

- 1 Please check compatibility with different products.
- 2 Handheld Unit's connectors are not electrically compatible with computer USB or RS232 ports. It features a proprietary connection and could cause damage or be damaged if connected to an inappropriate device.